Record 1,300 Members Attend Annual PVFCU Neighborhood Connection

A record crowd of almost 1,300 members attended the Annual PVFCU Neighborhood Connection on May 5. Members enjoyed a complimentary dinner and conversation with old and new friends, music from Shekinah, and a report from the CEO and Board of Directors. The Frisbee gift for kids and beverage tumblers for adults were appreciated and all ages loved the double giant slide, performances by the World Champion Frisbee Guy, and balloons.

Call Us First!

If you're saving for long-term goals such as retirement or education, you may want to broaden your investment options. If so, you don't have to search online for investment advice – call us first! PVFCU members have the convenience of an investment and insurance office right inside the credit union.

Our financial advisors can help you look at the big-picture, including your loans, savings, and investments.* In addition to educating you on ways to build assets, they can refer you to credit union services that could save you money on loan interest or simplify your money-management. It's an efficient way of coordinating all the parts of your financial life.

Meet your new PVFCU Board Members

How are you looking forward to contributing to the PVFCU Board?

Sherrill: I hope I can bring ideas or fresh perspectives to issues the organization and leadership face. It's been successful and I want that to continue.

Elizabeth: I am excited to be a part of the PVFCU Board! With my background in strategic planning I look forward to seeing how PVFCU is positioning itself for the future to ensure that they stay competitive and offer the services and experience the members want for generations to come.

What have you appreciated about your experience with PVFCU as a member?

Sherrill: I appreciate that I have always felt valued as a member, to the extent of feeling ownership in the credit union. The employees have always been available, and even happy, to assist with various financial needs/decisions.

Elizabeth: I've been a member of PVFCU since I was young with my first savings account. PVFCU continues to offer the different services that I have needed as I have grown from a child to an adult with a family. Now my girls have their own savings accounts with PVFCU!

Tell us about your family.

Sherrill: My three sons and their wives have provided me with six lovable, interesting and energetic grandchildren. I enjoy them, the beach, playing golf and reading - all of those at the same time make this grandma happy! And I'm passionate about helping to ensure Harrisonburg/Rockingham will always have good quality health care for everyone.

Elizabeth: My husband Jeff and I live in Dayton and have two beautiful girls Addyson and Makenna. Our girls continue to keep us on our toes and busy with extra-curricular activities.

5 Low-Cost Home Improvements

Think your home could use some improvements? Here are some stunning improvements you can make for less than $500.

1. Pressure wash the exterior. You'll be amazed how fresh and new it looks.
2. Add something to make your yard look good—perhaps flowering plants. You'll have beautiful blooms year after year if you plant perennials. Do some research as many gardeners place ads online offering free bulbs they've separated from mature plants.
3. Replace or paint your front door. It's the focus of attention so add a little pizzazz.
4. If the inside of your home is looking a little unloved, some fresh paint inside can make a huge difference for not a lot of dollars.
5. Think about adding some new light fixtures. Just a few will do.

Do us a favor please. Tell your friends about us so they can be smart about their money too.
