

Park View Federal Credit Union’s Molly Boese Selected to Join Prestigious BAI Emerging Leaders Network

Harrisonburg, VA – Park View Federal Credit Union’s Molly Boese, Human Resources Manager, has been selected to join the BAI Emerging Leaders Network, a selective professional development network dedicated to fostering growth of future leaders who will drive positive change in the financial services industry.

Boese is one of 100 Emerging Leaders chosen by BAI to join its Emerging Leaders Network, which recognizes up-and-coming financial services leaders from around the world with less than 10 years of experience in the industry. The network provides learning, mentoring, networking and recognition opportunities to aid in the development and career success of these standouts.

“We are pleased and honored that Molly has earned this unique and valuable opportunity,” says Yvonne Boettger, Director of Human Resources at PVFCU. “It comes at an opportune time as she grows as a leader in our organization. We look forward to having her share her experience and knowledge gained in this program with us.”

Highlighted benefits include complimentary registration for these Emerging Leaders and their mentors to attend BAI Beacon in October in Orlando, FL for a truly unique learning and networking experience. They also will be able to participate in the year-round professional development community designed to provide relevant education, mentoring and networking opportunities; special recognition in a BAI Banking Strategies Special Report; complimentary 2019 BAI Membership and more.

“It is our responsibility as leaders to provide unique opportunities and the resources to develop up-and-coming talent in the financial services industry,” said Debbie Bianucci, president and CEO of BAI. “The BAI Emerging Leaders Network comprises of distinguished, diverse rising stars in the industry who demonstrate unparalleled leadership characteristics.”

Members of the BAI Emerging Leaders Network are self-nominated or nominated by a senior leader in their organization.
