A Day to Serve Park View Employees Give Back

Park View branches may have been closed on Monday, November 11 – Veteran's Day, but our employees didn't take the day off. Instead, they, alongside some of our members, spent the day volunteering at eight locations throughout the Harrisonburg area.

Volunteers helped with tasks such as fall yard and garden work, food preparation, sorting donations and books, cleaning, office work and wood splitting. At the end of the day, our employees and members served a total of 455 hours of community service.

Giving back is part of Park View's DNA. Park View employees are encouraged to volunteer throughout the year, but we enjoy dedicating one day to ensure that our whole credit union family has the chance to participate.

“Volunteering as a team gives us the opportunity to take a day outside the office helping others and creating memorable experiences together,” said Elizabeth McNeal, Director of Strategic Marketing. “Our Community Connection Service day is just another example of our commitment to live out our heritage of Neighbors Serving Neighbors®.”
